

Criterion A: one world

Achievement Level	Descriptor
1 – 2	You state some of the benefits or limitation of science in addressing local/global issues
3 – 4	You describe some of the benefits or limitation of science in addressing local/global issues You describe how science and its application interacts with at least one of the following factors: social, economic, political, environmental, cultural and ethical
5 – 6	You explain some of the benefits or limitation of science in addressing local/global issues. You discuss how science and its application interacts with some of the following factors: social, economic, political, environmental, cultural and ethical